

HELP WANTED

I have finally figured it out! Help me harness the power of infinity and finally fulfil my quest to cover everything and everywhere in silly designs. Forget heat death, big rip, or even big crunch. The end of the universe will henceforth be known as BIG WRAP! The writing is on the wall for the universe. The papery demise no physicist ever predicted has started today!

Together we can decorate The Universe with useless posters!

Just take one, and place it somewhere else!

Thank you :)
